FRIDAY, MARCH 7, 1890.

The English in Portugal are having a hard time of it. The popular feeling toward them has assumed such a serious aspect that their feeling is anything but comfortable. In Oporto efforts are made to exclude them from the exchange and the clubs, to deprive them of their servants, and to eject them from their houses. A sort of general boycott has been proclaimed against them, and it is considered unpatriotic to either transact business or exchange courtesies with them. The extreme to which this feeling has gone may be inferred from the fact that English announcements and advertisements are excluded from the newspapers. Of course the goods are boycotted. Whether these irate people have gone so far as to refuse to send any more of their wines to England, or sell any more of it or any other of their products to the English, does not yet appear, but this would seem to be the natural sequence of what they have done already. It is well for them probably that their country is comparatively small and weak. A more powerful nation, if it acted so wildly as the Portuguese are doing, would probably bring upon itself pretty sharp rebuke. At Villa Nova the rough-amuse themselves by painting out names from English wine labels, and the intervention of the guards resulted in a certain number of them being seriously injured and fire-arms being fired into the mob. Even English ladies are insulted in the street, and many of them, it is said, are prepared to leave at a moment's notice. And one of the saddest things about it is that the native press, instead of pouring oil upon the troubled waters and doing what it can to prevent the unthinking part of the community from violating the rights of hospitality, and treating strangers and sojourners among them, with whom they have no just cause of quarrel, with insult and injury, only encourage ill-feeling. A correspondent of the London Times, to whom we are indebted for these facts, invokes the aid of that journal in pleading the cause of these persecuted people; but probably it will act upon the principle that at a time like the present the least said is soonest mended.

The Sandwich Islands have just had an exciting parliamentary election. In Oahu, the chief island, the ministerial party, which is led by foreigners, was defeated, but secured a sufficient majority in the other islands to retain power. The king and the native party are opposed to the present government. Apart from any consequences unfavorable to commercial interests in the Hawaiian kingdom that might result from the rule of a purely native ministry, the election has a little interest for Canadians in the fact that the leader of the present government is a native of Ontario.

This by-law is not to come into force until action is taken by residents of the town and surrounding country, or others, to secure incorporation, with the object of carrying on the management of a hospital in Prince Albert, and that the mover and seconder with Coun. GENERAL NEWS.

The first consignment of fruit from California to Winnipeg direct arrived this week via the Great Northern. It was twelve days from San Diego, the point of shipment.

Winnipeg, Feb. 21.—Arrangements have been definitely made to have the skating champion race, the Province take place in the outdoor rink on the 6th of March. A purse valued at $10 is to be given to the winner, and a gold medal valued at $20 to one who comes in second. It is expected that there will be two good races, as parties in Winnipeg, Pasage in Prairie and Brandon, have agreed their intention of entering. The races who have charge of the races are that everything will be done up to the hilt, and it will not be long before the best skater does not pass the winding post first. They will take extra precautions against any attempt at trickery or dishonesty.

Winnipeg, Feb. 21.—The curling contest for the Ontario tankard was continued today, when three matches were played in the morning. The Walkertons defeated the Hamilton Thistles by three ends and the Toronto Granites defeated Gough by one end. In the afternoon the final match was played, Walkerton defeating the Granites by three ends. The play for the tankard was altogether of the Victoria rink and the final match was witnessed by a large crowd of excited and enthusiastic spectators.

London, Feb. 21.—The fact Prince Bernhard is personally attending the inventory of his effects in his official town residence in Berlin, separating his personal belongings from those of the government, is regarded as conclusive evidence of his intention to resign the chancellorship.

Toronto, Feb. 21.—The reeve and four deputy reeves of York township were arrested today by judgment on an application made against Reeve Humblestone, on the ground that the voters who reside in the village of Chester were not allowed to vote at the election. It was found that the village had not been legally incorporated.

Toronto, Feb. 21.—Rolly Moffat, ex-attendant of the Ontario bank, was granted bail a couple of days ago by Chief Justice Armour on several charges of embezzlement and forgery preferred against him, but as he was about to be liberated he was re-arrested on another charge. Today the Chief Justice again made an order for bail and intimated that if any more charges were preferred against the defendant he would make order for bail in each case.

London, Feb. 21.—Conservative leaders in the Commons have instructed their provincial agents and managers to report as soon as possible the effect of the report of the Parnell commission has had in their respective localities, preliminary to action on the report in the House. Agents are informed that no action will be taken on the report until the government is advised as to the manner of the reception of the document by the people, therefore no delay should be permitted in the collection of the data required.

Ottawa, Feb. 21.—Although by a vote of nearly two to one the MacCarthy bill was disposed of to night in the Commons, it by no means follows that the disturbing question is finally settled. On the contrary, the threat is openly held out that on the first opportunity, resurrected and kept alive until the agitation secures greater results than were achieved to-night. The vote too is no indication of the exact strength of the different factions, as many of those who opposed the government's proposal did so for very converse reasons, while there is no doubt the party lash whipped many a member unwilling into line to support the amendment. The debate was strong until ten o'clock, although the House became so tired and impatient that during the last hours the speakers were compelled to cut their remarks short.

Winnipeg, Ont., Feb. 21.—The body of a man was discovered to-day in the woods on the Herse farm in the township of Beuchemin. The body had one ugly wound just back of the left ear. No weapons or traces of a struggle could be discovered in the vicinity but the track of a large moose travelling from the corpse was found between it and the road. Pearl cuff buttons marked W. West, were found on the body. Pieces supposed to have been marked with his name or initial were cut from several parts of his collar and underclothing and his right hand pants pocket was turned outside. The body was removed to the undertaking establishment and an inquest will be held.

MONTREAL, Feb. 21.—This afternoon's Winnipeg contains the following statement: The C.P.R. is arranging to have a line of three or four steamers to go straight around the world, or as straight as the intervening land will allow. They will start from Montreal, Halifax and New York in the fall so as to make the voyage in winter and avoid the summer heat in India and the Suez canal. The route will run through London, Gibraltar, Malta, Suez, Penang, Colombo, Calcutta, Hong Kong, Yokohama and Vancouver, and passengers will be on the same steamer throughout the voyage.

ROUNDOUT, N.Y., Feb. 21.—The prospects of securing at least a partial ice-crop along the Upper Hudson is encouraging to-night. The cold wave which made its appearance yesterday is increasing in severity. The river is closed at Castleton, Colmans, New Baltimore, and other points north of here. From Hudson south to Plouffekeeping, the river is filled with ice. A large number of men are still engaged in harvesting on the inland ponds and streams throughout the Catskills.

ARMADA.

The great question here is: did Sissons catch the bear?

Mr. J. Bair, millwright here, intends paying a visit to Prince Albert shortly to renew old acquaintances.

Your correspondent was in error, two weeks ago, when he stated that Mr. Seymour, of Sandy Lake, officiated at the organ.

Rev. John McKay and Mr. Jas. Dreaver, who have been confined to their beds for some time, are steadily recovering their health.

On Shrove Tuesday Chief Attakapoop, his councillors and some of the prominent citizens of Sandy Lake drove down to the agency and had a long confab with the agent, and also did justice to a good dinner which was provided for them through the kindness of Mrs. and Miss Emlyson. All dispersed after having spent an enjoyable day.

Two well known citizens of Prince Albert arrived here last week, on a snow shoe tramp. The thermometer was 40° below zero. Although one of the party experienced great difficulty last New Year's in reaching Carlton alive, on account of his feet being frozen, still he must further tempt Jack Frost, and was this time severely bitten on the fingers. The party left home on Friday accompanied by a dog and horse, the latter proving to be more trouble than was anticipated, but, however, after three beautiful days of keen frost, and good snow-shoeing, they managed to arrive at Geo. Chaffee's house, at Muskeg Lake. Our friends having spent a very pleasant evening with Mr. and Mrs. Chaffee and family, pushed on in the direction of Snake Plain, but their horse played out on the way, and through some accident, or otherwise, the travellers got separated and each gave the other up for lost. At sundown the last of the outfit wandered into the agency where they again spent another very pleasant evening. On the following morning one of the party felt sick and suddenly requested his partner to strike homeward, which was granted, and before an hour passed all their outfit was packed and the young men on the trail again, but before leaving the Plain they took dinner with the Rev. John McKay, and having bid adieu to the reverend gentleman and family they requested to be reminded of this trip if ever they were again seen striking out snow-shoeing. Some say the aim our friends had in view was to examine the trail thoroughly between Muskeg Lake and Carlton, on account of their intending to run H. M. mail between those two points. Others say they opened a new trail (?) through the fir, which leads to a large lake!!!

The third edition of Principal Austin's fifty pp. book, The Jesuits at hand. This book is having wonderful sale. The first edition contained chapters on the Origin, History, Aims, Immoral Teaching, Expulsions, Condemnations of the Jesuits and the Ball of Pope Clement abolishing them. This contains in addition an introduction by J. L. Hughes and articles by Prof. Goldwin Smith and Hon. John Charlton. Price, 15c. Copies may be obtained of Principal Austin, B.D., St. Thomas, Ont.

Mrs. WIGMORE'S SWEETENED SYRUP FOR CHILDREN TEething is present to the taste, and is the preservation of one of the best and best female nurses and physicians in the U. S. and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25c a bottle.

Oh, what glorious weather we have had for the past week.

Messrs. Garneau, sr. and jr., of Batoche were in town, this week.

Mr. Dyke Parker, teacher at LaCorne, arrived in town last evening.

Mr. Geo. Connor, postmaster at Kinistino, was in town on Wednesday.

Sam. Donaldson sent out a special this week, for Qu'Appelle, with four passengers.

Dr. Jardine is pulling down the store lately occupied by T. E. Jackson, and will put up a fine store in its place.

During the past week there has been a big boom in town property, and a number of lots changed hands at good prices.

Since last week a lot of freight is on the way from Qu'Appelle for our merchants, and it is to be hoped those who have it in charge will get a big move on as bacey is scarce.

J. M. Campbell left for Carrot River on Thursday, taking with him the Kinistino mail, which the regular carrier would not wait for. Mr. Campbell will bring Thos. Irvine, who has been ill for some time, back with him.

On Tuesday evening last, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Spence, entertained a number of the brethren and sisters of Rupert's and St. Andrew's Councils R. T. of T. at their residence, where a very pleasant evening was spent.

Posters are out announcing another grand entertainment by the Police at the barracks on Monday evening, March 17th. The boys deserve great credit for providing so many entertainments during the past winter, and they deserve to be well patronized.

About the best move the Council have made for some time is their decision to buy the Presbyterian church and one and one-half acres of land surrounding it for $3,000. Securing this property and erecting a town hall on it will centralize our much-scattered town.

HEROES OF THE DARK CONTINENT.

As the title of this splendid and valuable book indicates, it covers the whole history of Africa and African exploration, discovery and adventure for more than a thousand years, and in particular gives the only complete and authentic account of Henry M. Stanley's latest and most wonderful trip for the relief of Emin Pasha.

It also describes the country, its vast expanse of plains, uplands, jungles, mountains, rivers and lakes, with its illimitable resources for the support of teeming populations, which in the course of a few years will find homes there. It tells about the varied and curious races of savage people, cannibals, dwarfs, etc., that now inhabit different parts of the continent, describing their singular customs, beliefs and superstitions, the whole work being so fully and accurately illustrated and so graphically portrayed in the text that the reader is enabled to see Africa just as it has been seen by all the great explorers and travellers.

Such a book is of inestimable value and interest just at this time, when the attention of the whole world is being directed towards Africa as the only remaining continent to be peopled by the white races, and particularly now while there is so much enthusiasm over the brilliant exploits of our fellow-countryman, Henry M. Stanley.

Mr. Douglas Peterson, has been appointed agent for this district.
